

WORKSHOP BOOKING FORM

An introduction to the impact of social networking in adoption and fostering

THEME

Social networking is here to stay in an ever-changing world. Our confidence levels about how to manage this phenomenon can vary. The importance of social media in young people's lives can challenge supervising social workers, foster carers and adopters. The issue of unmediated online contact is one that arises on a consistent basis.

This workshop will aim to provide an overview of how the impact of these changes have been managed and progressed in adoption and fostering.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Gain a basic awareness of social networking;
- Explore the impact of social networking on fostered and adopted children's lives;
- Examine the positives and the challenges of social networking;
- Have an opportunity to discuss day-to-day dilemmas.

This workshop will be helpful to family placement workers, children and families workers and adoption and fostering panel members. Applications are also welcome from adopters and foster carers.
