Individual membership of AFA Scotland

Adoption and Fostering Alliance (AFA) Scotland is a charity that offers services to all those working in the field of adoption, fostering and the care of looked after children. Our professional multidisciplinary team has wide experience and up-to-date expertise in adoption, fostering and child care practice.

AFA Scotland offers individual membership to all professionals working to improve the lives of looked after and adopted children, including social work, legal, health and research professionals.

The main benefits for individual members are listed below.

AFA Scotland forums

Individual members can attend one of our member-only forums for social work, health and legal professionals in Scotland, with meetings offered at least three times a year.

- Family Placement Forum
- Legal Adoption and Fostering Forum
- Chairs Development Forum
- Medical Advisors Forum

Information and advice

Members have access to our Scotland-specific helpline providing expert specialist advice on legal, health and child placement dilemmas. This includes enquiries about cross-border and inter-country adoptions and fostering.

Training

Members receive discounts at all AFA Scotland training events. We provide many continuous professional development opportunities for social workers and related professionals. Specialist workshops and conferences are held throughout the year, often with highly regarded external speakers.

Cost for 2016-2017

Individual Membership: £50.00 + VAT
Legal Firms: £100.00 + VAT
