THEME

The Secure Base Model devised by Gillian Schofield and Mary Beek provides a positive framework for therapeutic caregiving to help children and young people move towards greater security and builds resilience.

This workshop provides an introduction to the key dimensions of the Secure Base Model and specific tools to assess the needs of children and young people in the looked after system and the support needs of those who care for them. Its use in the assessment of foster carers and adopters will also be considered.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Fostering and adoption social workers and managers, children's social workers and managers

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This AFA Scotland workshop will enable participants to:

- Gain knowledge of the key dimensions of the Secure Base Model
- relate the dimensions to the needs of children and young people in the looked after system
- Be proactive in applying the model in fostering and adoption assessments
- Be confident in applying the model to supervise foster carers and support adopters
