

LEGAL CONFERENCE BOOKING FORM

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Supporting children, families and relationships into the future

Date: Friday 5 November 2021

Venue: Online Platform – MS Teams

Cost: £85.00 + VAT

Time: 10.00am – 2.00pm

The Permanence, Adoption and Kinship Care Orders are just the beginning for children and families moving towards the hope of a settled life. We know that ongoing support and advice from professionals is vital in sustaining these relationships.

This year's legal conference will explore how to future proof plans and Orders so as to reduce the risk of disruption; post adoption support; through care and after care for children who are no longer looked after; the terms of Kinship Care Orders and applications to vary these and working with the birth mother who no longer has any rights or responsibilities for her child.

This will be a virtual meeting but break out rooms will provide delegates with an opportunity to share views and experiences.

SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE|:

Representatives from social work, private practice, the Bench and research will speak.

Claire Anne McFadden, Partner, J K Cameron Solicitors – Claire has decades of experience representing adoptive parents, kinship carers and Local Authorities in permanence applications to Court

Dr Ariane Critchley-Morris, Researcher and lecturer at Napier and Stirling Universities.
